Description

The State Bar of California's Rules Revision Commission has written a new set of professional rules. If and when they are approved by the Supreme Court, they will change the way you practice law. Here is a preview of some of more significant changes in the rules regarding conflicts, performance, and fees. Topics covered include:

I. The history and purpose of ethical rules governing lawyers in the United States (10 min.)
II. Efforts to revise the rules (8 min.)
III. An overview of proposed rules (20 min.)
IV. How changes in the rules will affect the way you practice law (20 min.)
