Bankruptcy Appeals at all Levels

Total: 57 Minutes

Speakers:
Reno Fernandez

Description/Table of Contents

Bankruptcy appeals differ from ordinary federal civil appeals in several important ways. In this intermediate program bankruptcy appellate specialist, Reno Fernandez, will unpack those differences and give attorneys involved in a bankruptcy appeals a number of valuable tools for ensuring a satisfactory outcome for their clients. Topics include the notice of appeal, rules, courts, early disposition, oral argument, and post-decision issues.

Topics include:

- Finality (6 min.)
- Notice of appeal (8 min.)
- Courts (5 min.)
- Rules (8 min.)
- Record on appeal (8 min.)
- Early disposition (5 min.)
- Briefing (9 min.)
- Oral argument (10 min.)
- Post decision issues (8 min.)

Total: 57 minutes

©LexVid Services. All Rights Reserved

Speaker Bio: Reno Fernandez

Reno Fernandez joined the Complex Appellate Litigation Group as its first bankruptcy appellate specialist in 2022. Currently, Mr. Fernandez is working on a matter pending before the U.S. Supreme Court, namely Buckley v. Bartenwerfer, No. 21-908 (U.S. Dec. 17, 2021), set for oral argument on December 6, 2022. He is certified as a specialist in bankruptcy law by the State Bar of California Board of Specialization. He was a partner with Macdonald Fernandez LLP for ten of his fifteen years of practice in commercial bankruptcy litigation. He is a former chair of the Insolvency Law Committee of the State Bar of California's Business Law Section and the Commercial Law & Bankruptcy Section of the Bar Association of San Francisco, among other activities. Mr. Fernandez earned his J.D. from Golden Gate University School of Law and his undergraduate degree from the University of California, Berkeley

©LexVid Services. All Rights Reserved