LexVid Services, Inc., Presents:
Ethical Rules and Pitfalls for Bankruptcy Attorneys
Total: 60 Minutes

Speakers:
Michael Riela

Description

Representing bankruptcy clients often presents a number of ethical issues for the attorney/law firm. Not only must state ethics rules be considered, but the Bankruptcy Code imposes its own set of ethics rules to abide by. This program unravels the key ethical traps both consumer and business bankruptcy attorneys are likely to encounter. Topics include: conflicts and disinterestedness rules in the Model Rules of Professional Conduct and Bankruptcy Rules; specific conflicts and disinterestedness issues; and fee arrangements in consumer bankruptcy cases.

- Ethics: Conflicts and disinterestedness rules: Model Rules of Professional Conduct and Bankruptcy rules (20 min.)
- Ethics: Specific Conflicts and disinterestedness rules (20 min.)
- Ethics: Fee arrangements in consumer bankruptcy cases (20 min.)

TOTAL: 60 Minutes

About the Speaker – Michael Riela

Michael has over 15 years of experience advising clients in complex restructuring, distressed M&A, financing, and bankruptcy-related litigation matters. He also has significant experience in the data privacy and cybersecurity fields. Michael is a frequent author and speaker in these areas. The “Publications” and “Events” tabs highlight many of Michael’s recent articles and speaking engagements.