How the Internet is Making Lawyering Worse (And How to Stay Good in Spite of It

Total: 65 Minutes

Speakers:
Dan Schiavetta, Jr.

Description/Table of Contents

The technologies that lawyers use in their daily practices have changed significantly over the last few decades - but not always for the better! This program will dive into many technologies lawyers depend on and discuss their evolution. The speaker will cover many strategies for overcoming the shortcomings of modern technologies in order to become a better lawyer.

Topics include -

- Word processing and brief writing (10 min.)
- Document management software (10 min.)
- E-discovery software 105 min.)
- Issues with representing clients (10 min)
- Other common shortcomings of legal technologies (10 min.)
- How to be a good lawyer despite bad technology (15 minutes)

Total: 65 minutes

©LexVid Services. All Rights Reserved

Speakers

Dan Schiavetta, Jr. has been defending nursing homes for twenty years, both supervising other attorneys and directly acting as defense counsel in hundreds of cases. He has a great deal of experience in appellate and insurance coverage litigation. He has prosecuted rescission, declaratory judgment and interpleader actions in state and federal court on behalf of various insurers, and has tried cases involving medical malpractice and premises liability.

©LexVid Services. All Rights Reserved