FOUNDATION DOCUMENTATION
Regarding Loss of Credit Reputation

When replying to Information Requests: Please inform us as early as possible if requested document(s) are not available or indicate when requested documents may be expected.

Do NOT Gang Documents into PDF files. Each Document must be in a separate PDF file.

Vague or incomplete comments do not allow for meaningful measurements, and cause time consuming requests for additional information. Client failure to provide sufficient basis for proper credit damage measurement will compromise your credit damage claim .

Please send copies (Not Originals) of documents to provide a foundation for the basis of my opinion, and to quantify/monetize the qualifying damages:

- a copy of the complaint, if available

- Post Injury Subscriber tri-merged Credit report with credit score - Experian, TransUnion, Equifax

- pre-injury credit report(s) if available - going back 2 years and post injury as appropriate

- documents regarding credit denial or rate increase, cancellation or reduction of credit

- deposition or interrogatory transcript(s), if available

- 1040 Tax Return(s), ONLY Schedule A- Showing itemized deduction for real estate interest & property tax

- Client declaration(s) of damaging events with supporting documentation to include the following information :

Who - name the company that issued the monthly statement or denial letter
When - when would that statement or letter have been issued - "approx (month - month) of (year)
What – What amount of money was involved:
- was a credit limit lowered? from what higher amount, to what lower amount?
- loan application - how much credit was applied for?
- lease application - what was the monthly payment, and how long was the lease

Where - what city was this issued to - where was the client living
Why - what was the cause of denial? Lack of income, credit report remarks, too much debt, etc
