LexVid Services, Inc., Presents:

Recovering Economic Damages Done by Divorce

Total: 55 Minutes

Speakers: Georg Finder

Economic damages - also known as credit damage - are one of the most commonly overlooked type of compensable damages. These damages are typical in a divorce context where, for example, one party cannot acquire a mortgage at the same terms he or she could have if not for their former spouse's actions. In this program, economic damage expert Georg Finder gives a broad overview on credit damages that can occur in a divorce, and provides helpful strategies on valuating these damages. Topics include:

1. Types of Credit Damage (10 min.)
2. Foundational Evidence (10 min.)
3. Credit Scores and Their Effect on Your Client (10 min.)
4. Choosing the Right Expert for Your Case (10 min.)
5. Case Examples and Q & A (15 min.)

Total: 55 min.
