LexVid Services, Inc., Presents:

Ethics, AI, and the World: AI and Algorithm Development and New Frontiers of Professional Responsibility

Total: 62 Minutes

Speakers:

James A. Sherer

Description/Table of Contents

The adoption and use of machine learning artificial intelligence ("AI") has permeated the practice of law as well as virtually every industry our clients operate in. As such, we as lawyers can no longer avoid AI or pass it on to others.

In this program, attorney James Sherer dives into the many ethical frameworks that direct the use of AI in support of legal endeavors. Attorneys who complete this course will have a deeper understanding of machine learning and AI, and will know how these technologies affect the practice of law, malpractice issues, disciplinary actions, and client dissatisfaction.

Topics include:

- Introduction and background (10 min.)
- Discussion of proposed legal/ethical frameworks (25 min.)
- Application in the U.S. courts and justice system (12 min.)
- Caselaw study (15 min.)
