LexVid Services, Inc., Presents:

Tax Issues in Employment Law Claims

Total: 80 Minutes

Speakers:
Ed Leyden

Description/Table of Contents

Understanding and planning for the many tax issues predominant in employment law cases can be complex. In this program, tax attorney Ed Leyden makes unpacks these issues and makes them addressable for attorneys settling employment cases. Additionally, the program provides a number of practical strategies attorneys can employ when facing these issues. Topics covered include social security disability income, disability income, tax categories for employment claim recoveries, attorneys' fees in unlawful discrimination claims, the 2017 Tax Cuts and Jobs Act, emerging employment litigation strategies, and more.

Topics include:

- Social security disability income (5 min.)
- Disability insurance income (5 min.)
- Tax categories for recoveries from employment claims (20 min.)
- Attorneys' fees for "unlawful discrimination" cases (10 min.)
- Structured settlements for nonwage payments (5 min.)
- Provisions under the 2017 "Tax Cuts and Jobs Act" (10 min.)
- Emerging employment litigation strategies (20 min.)
- Managing IRC Section 409A issues (5 min.)

Total: 80 minutes

©LexVid, Inc. All Rights Reserved

Presenter: Ed Leyden

Ed Leyden has successfully represented companies and individuals across the United States and around the world.

Ed is a Past Chair of the American Bar Association Section of Taxation, Committee on Employment Taxes, and has been elected as a Life Fellow of the American Bar Foundation.

In the course of a career which has included membership in the National Tax Department of a major accounting firm and as a name partner in a prominent D.C. corporate defense firm, Ed has advised a diverse group of clients, including technology companies, health care enterprises, global financial institutions, National Football League players, the online gaming community, and major sports leagues.

Ed earned his undergraduate degree in Commerce & Engineering at Drexel University and received his law degrees from the University of Baltimore and the Georgetown University Law Center.

©LexVid, Inc. All Rights Reserved