LexVid Services, Inc., Presents:

Cutting-Edge Developments in Non-Competes

Total: 123 Minutes

Speakers:
Robert Fitzpatrick

Description/Table of Contents

The legal landscape surrounding non-compete/non-solicitation is constantly evolving and can vary widely between jurisdictions. Attorneys advising employers must be up-to-date on the current case law in order to properly advise their clients on non-compete agreements in this ever-changing area of the law. In this program, employment lawyer Bob Fitzpatrick covers the most recent developments affecting non-compete enforcement.

Topics include:

- Non-compete agreements: Background (10 min.)
- Discussion on case law and trends affecting non-compete law in the US (113 min.)

Total: 123 minutes

Presenter:

Robert Fitzpatrick
Robert Fitzpatrick has been representing employees for over 40 years since he first began his legal career litigating race-discrimination cases in the Deep South during the late 1960s. Mr. Fitzpatrick now represents both management and employees. He has been recognized by the Nation Law Journal as one of the top employment lawyers in the country and by the Washingtonian Magazine as "Tops in Employment Law" in the Washington, D.C. area.
