Description/Table of Contents

Complying with the Medicare Secondary Payer Act can be complex and failing to properly adhere to its requirements can lead to dire consequences. This presentation gives attorneys handling Medicare issues an in-depth look at the requirements in the Medicare Secondary Payment Act. The program starts with basics about Medicare and its eligibility requirements before diving into the three elements within the statute: the requirement for Section 111 reporting, the requirement to reimburse Medicare liens, and the requirement to keep Medicare secondary to a settlement under certain circumstances.

Topics include:

- Medicare background and eligibility requirements (15 min.)
- Conditional payments (40 min.)
- Section 111 reporting (30 min.)
- Medicare set asides (40 min.)
