LexVid Services, Inc., Presents:

Proofs of Claim

Total: 60 Minutes

Speakers:
Steven R. Fox

Description/Table of Contents

A proof of claim in bankruptcy is a legal document where a creditor states what is owed to them. The proof of claim has many nuisances that bankruptcy attorneys representing creditors must fully understand in order for their clients' to have a successful outcome in the case. This course will walk bankruptcy attorneys through the ins and outs of proof of claims, covering topics such as types of claims, priority claims, filing issues, deadlines, and many more. Topics include:

- Types of claims (8 min.)
- Priority claims (10 min.)
- Administrative claims (7 min.)
- Filings, deadlines, and exceptions (15 min.)
- Claim objections (10 min.)
- POC classes (10 min.)

Total: 60 minutes

Presenters:

Steven R. Fox brings the title "counselor" back to the legal profession. His clients quickly recognize that they need more than legal advice – they need business and personal guidance during a time of financial crisis. Although Mr. Fox limits his legal practice to bankruptcy and reorganization matters, he frequently counsels business owners on how to avoid bankruptcy court proceedings and, instead, use other strategies to turn their businesses around and make them prosper. It is also not unusual for the media to seek out his opinions on reorganization and bankruptcy topics.

Mr. Fox has counseled businesses and individuals facing financial challenges since 1988. He is highly experienced in the complex areas of bankruptcy law and Chapter 11 Reorganization. Reorganization is not simply a group of statutes. Reorganization calls for understanding the rhythms of businesses, understanding why creditors do what they do, identifying strategies which either frustrate the goals and aims of creditors who seek to harm the debtor businesses or strategies which allow debtor businesses and their creditors to prosper, understanding why other players in the bankruptcy arena act in certain ways and getting the judges to yes.

©LexVid, Inc. All Rights Reserved

As the principal of The Law Offices of Steven R. Fox, Mr. Fox represents businesses and individuals in and out of court in all aspects of the insolvency and reorganization process.

Mr. Fox is active in professional organizations relevant to his practice and is a leader in legal community. He chairs the Bankruptcy Section of the San Fernando Valley Bar Association where he is known for presenting timely and compelling programming. He is a member of the Los Angeles Bankruptcy Forum, the American Bankruptcy Institute and the National Association of Consumer Bankruptcy Attorneys. In the early 2000s, recognizing a need for new attorneys practicing consumer bankruptcy law to have a forum to learn and to grow in their field, Mr. Fox became one of the founders of the Central District Consumer Bankruptcy Attorneys Association in Los Angeles.

As a busy reorganization counselor and lawyer, Mr. Fox successfully confirms Chapter 11 plans of reorganization and works with companies and individuals on out of court business turnarounds and restructures.

©LexVid, Inc. All Rights Reserved