LexVid Services, Inc., Presents:

Brewery / Distillery Law Series – Part 1

Total: 85 Minutes

Speaker: Danielle Teagarden

With the craft beer market on the rise and small breweries and distilleries popping up everywhere, the demand for alcohol industry-savvy attorneys is growing. In this program, accomplished business attorney and author of the popular Brewery Law Blog, Danielle Teagarden, takes viewers through the complex history of alcohol beverage law in the US, including prohibition, the Twenty-first Amendment, and the three-tier system that developed in prohibition's wake. Ms. Teagarden then covers the moray of federal and local regulations attorneys practicing in this area need to be familiar with. The program then shifts to business start-up planning for brewery clients, tackling subjects such as business planning, fundraising, licensing, and distribution. Topics include:

- History of Alcohol Beverage Law (20 min)
- Federal & Local Regulations Attorneys Should Know (35 min.)
- Business Start-Up Planning (15 min.)
- Fundraising (5 min.)
- Licensing Issues (5 min)
- Distribution Issues (5 min)
