Four Very Expensive Ethical Mistakes Lawyers Can Avoid Making

Total: 53 Minutes

Speaker: Janet Sobel

There are several ethical mistakes attorneys make that not only can prove costly, but can be damaging to their career. Don't fall into this trap. In this program, author and attorney Janet Sobel will lay out the four most common such mistakes, which include charging reasonable fees, failure to properly respond to questions, maintaining original documents, and a failure to consider whether insurance is available for a claim. Topics include:

- Charging Reasonable Fees (10 min)
- Failure to Respond to Client Questions (10 min.)
- Maintaining Original Documents (10 min.)
- Failure to Consider Whether Insurance is an Option for Your Client (10 min.)
- Real Life Examples of Misconduct (13 min.)
