Suspension and Debarment in Government Contracting

Total: 108 Minutes

Speaker: Kara M. Sacilotto
Partner, Wiley Rein

In an effort to protect the federal government from waste, fraud, and abuse, the administrative remedy of suspension and debarment of government contractors has become more common in recent years. This program covers the key issues involved in suspension and debarment actions, including the basic rules, trends, operation under the Procurement Rules of the Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR), judicial review, administrative agreements, mitigating factors, and other available remedies. The presenter wraps up by giving a number of valuable practitioner pointers gleaned from years of counseling clients through suspension and debarment actions.

Topics covered include:

- Increased Focus on Suspension and Debarment – (10 min.)
- Basics of Suspension and Debarment (15 min.)
- Judicial Review (10 min.)
- Where Suspension & Debarment Fits within Other Government Remedies (10 min.)
- Administrative Agreements (10 min.)
- Practice Pointers (10 min.)
- Avoiding Suspension and Debarment (3 min.)
