The Intersection of Arbitration & Bankruptcy

Total: 67 Minutes

Speaker: Reno Fernandez, III

Today, most commercial contracts contain an arbitration clause. When a defendant files for bankruptcy, any arbitration award flowing from this contracts is impacted greatly. This program will help attorneys understand what to do when these issues collide.

Two key takeaways from this course:
1) What do you do with an arbitration award you have already obtained when a defendant has filed a bankruptcy?
2) What can you do when you are in the process of obtaining, or have not yet commenced, an arbitration award and a defendant files a bankruptcy.
